

My family & I don't understand what the fuss is all about. XM radio is the ONLY form of communication that is available in one's vehicle, where they can get local and national weather traffic. For those of us that make our living driving, it has been a major asset!!! It would be a BIG mistake if XM loses this form of programming!!!